RE: Leadership for American Opportunity PAC (LAO PAC) request for committee termination.
(#C00456913)

LAO PAC filed a termination of committee notice as the organization has been inactive for the last two years, has no staff or infrastructure to support its activities, and lacks an honorary chairman to conduct fundraising activities.

The political action committee carries one debt to Hilltop Solutions in the amount of $16,000. The debt was incurred in 2010 for “strategic and communications services”.

This memo seeks to address this debt, as required by the Federal Election Committee, in order to proceed to finalizing termination of the political action committee. This debt was actively pursued until Spring of 2014. As a follow-up to settle the debt, LAO PAC continued to make two additional payments to the Hilltop Solutions in the amount of $4,000.

On June 23, 2016 the honorary chairman, and leading fundraising official, of LAO PAC resigned from Congress. As it stands, it is unlikely that LAO PAC will be or could to raise the funds necessary to settle the debt.

Debt Settlement plan

Terms of initial extension of credit

LAO PAC entered a fee for service arrangement with Hilltop Consulting and was billed on a monthly basis for those services via invoice. The invoices accumulated to $20,000.

Effort to satisfy the debt

LAO PAC made incremental payments in 2013 and 2014 totaling $4,000 for the $20,000 due.

Total debts owed by LAO PAC

LAO PAC has one debt in total; to Hilltop Solutions in the amount of $16,000 outstanding.
